

Wolf River Paddle and Pedal

Saturday, June 25, 2016

Between 7:30 and 8:45 a.m. drop off your bicycle at the CCC boat landing and a canoe or kayak at Judd Park / Lieg Ave. Boat Landing. (If renting equipment from Mt. Bay, it will be dropped off for you.) Park your vehicle and check-in at Mt. Bay Outfitters by 9:00am. Walk or take shuttle to put-in. Group launch at 9:15.

Basic kayak instructions and yoga at Judd Park from 8:30 – 9:00.

- Paddle down the Wolf River, all flat water, through natural areas, to CCC - about 2-1/2 hours.
- Ride your bike back on a 8, 12 or 17 mile route to Mountain Bay. Your boat will be there waiting for you!
- Before or after add an optional 1 or 4 mile walk or run to make it a "tri-day."

Brat fry available at Mt. Bay.

Event cost $15 per person. (If Shawano Pathways member or renting equipment from Mt. Bay, $10 per person).

Equipment rental additional cost. Please reserve rental bikes, canoes or kayaks at least 4 days in advance.

Registration fee covers the cost of shuttling boats back to Shawano, bike security, emergency vehicle, water, and snacks. Remaining funds go to help Shawano Pathways support new and improved biking and walking trails.

Register by calling Tim Conradt at Mountain Bay, 715-526-8823.

Mountain Bay Outfitters is located in a historic train depot at 620 S. Main Street, Shawano, WI 54166.

More details on the Mt. Bay Outfitter's and Shawano Pathways websites.